In line with Grand Park's mission to celebrate L.A.'s cultural vitality and provide experiences as the "park for everyone," the eighth annual Grand Park + The Music Center's 4th of July Block Party will take L.A. County's highly popular free Independence Day celebration into Angelenos' homes this year for this first time. The multi-dimensional online experience will feature newly curated content for digital enjoyment, including cooking demonstrations, comedy ensembles and music performances, plus online workshops and more. Highlighting local talent, artists and community partners, the three-hour, family-friendly virtual event will be streamed live on Grand Park's digital streaming platforms on Saturday, July 4, 2020.

More details, including the complete schedule and line-up to be announced.

Grand Park will be closed to public gatherings and picnics on Saturday, July 4, 2020. The online celebration is intended to ensure the public's safety and well-being as Grand Park follows sound public health practices to help Los Angeles County slow the community transmission of COVID-19.

About Grand Park

A vibrant outdoor gathering place, Grand Park is a beautiful public park for the entire community in Los Angeles County. With expansive green space for gatherings large and small, Grand Park celebrates the county's cultural vitality and is host to community events, cultural experiences, holiday celebrations, and many other activities that engage and attract visitors from all communities. The 12-acre Grand Park stretches from The Music Center on the west to City Hall on the east and is easily accessible by Metro via the Red/Purple line to the Civic Center/Grand Park station. The park was named one of American Planning Association's 10 "Great Public Spaces" in the U.S. for 2013. Working closely with the county, The Music Center is responsible for all operations and programming for the park. For more information, visit grandparkla.org.
